

“When you listen to Ron, you understand that there is still quality music around.” - Planet Singer Magazine

Ron Hamrick is an internationally acclaimed Virginia-based songwriter and performer. Playing songs people know and love, including his own Billboard Top 10 hits, his music has been making people’s lives a little brighter for decades. With a very extensive repertoire of songs, Boomers, Gen Xers, Millennials, and Gen Zers all enjoy his music.

Ron has performed on thousands of stages across the U.S. and England over the years, including performances at world-famous venues such as the National Mall in Washington, DC, Grant Park in Chicago, and the Cavern Club in Liverpool, England, among many others. Whether playing to outdoor crowds in the tens of thousands or at intimate indoor settings, audiences are always delighted with his performances.

He is also a gifted keyboardist who has been playing since he was 5 years old, and his mastery of modern keyboard technology makes it seem as if there is an entire band on stage with him, making his performances even more fulfilling to his audiences. Even experienced guitarists marvel at his ability to play intricate guitar parts on his keys for songs such as the Eagles’ “Hotel California” as well as on other guitar-prominent songs.

Ron started performing in bands and writing songs many years ago as a teenager in Michigan. He wrote his first #1 hit when he was 18 years old and has written several Billboard hits since then. His songwriting has earned him an international following and induction in the Michigan Rock and Roll Legends Hall of Fame. His recordings are distributed on Spotify and other major music streaming services across the world.

Ron is very grateful that his music brings joy to the people who listen to it.
